My Dear Sir

I have much pleasure in giving my testimony to the high personal character of Capt Nathaniel E Atwood of Provincetown Mass, Cape Cod, and also to that of his son Capt Nathaniel Atwood, I beg to commend them to your kind consideration and confidence, The account detailed in the above communication ought in my opinion to receive notice, It is only by such recognition of a self-sacrificing disposition on the part of Shipmasters that they are stimulated to future effort in behalf of suffering sailors at sea on drifting wrecks

I remain with considerations
Of great respect
Your most
Obedient Servant
George Buty Blake
