

The old Octagon Inn, on corner of Soper Street (left) Nicker-son Street, right. 1940

Provincetown Advocate
August 7, 1924

Did you know that you can
Rest a While at The Octagon

A large screened porch at your disposal, rest rooms with home privileges. Sandwiches, waffles, ice cream, home made cake and tea served. Lunches put up to take out.

Rooms by the night are also available with breakfast served if desired. Come, let us make you comfortable.

THE OCTAGON,
74 Commercial St.

The Octagon House was built about 19540 by Robert Soper, a Whaling Captain

The Octogan House - October 13, 1957

Turn Over ..... carefully
When it was a Restaruant; Is now a home for old folka