

An old Cape Cod skipper once described a tomb in nautical language: "Yes, sir, built to last and she sleeps six."

1456

There are 85 early family names represented in the old Provincetown Cemetery on Winthrop Street. The oldest recorded name is that of Hatch in 1727.
May 1954

The grave of Joshua Atkins Mayo, Grandma Perkins' great grandfather. He died June 1816, at the age of 57.

Toward town from the old cemetery. About 1920. Catholic Church, center