

"Aunt" Nell Lewis's House in November 1951. Note absence of long front porch, see foregoing panorama.

Now belongs to her daughter, Elizabeth (& William) Carlos.

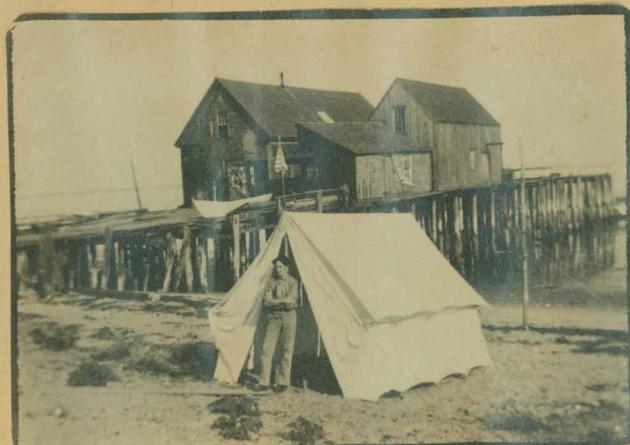

Paine's Wharf (or the 6's & 7's) in 1934, with The Sunbeam cottage on the right, and John Francis' "White House" back of it.

The tip of Lewis's house can be seen - left

Nell Lewis's House about 1921

Paine's wharf. Aunt Mertie's brother in tent door.

- About 1921 -

The Little Jennie, owned by Great Uncles Joe & Herm Mayo, & then later by 2nd Cousin, Charlie Mayo.

• May 1900

Arrived Wednesday, sch. Ralph Eaton, Capt. Fisher, from South. seining. Reports sighting on Tuesday the sch. Little Jennie of this place, also speaking sch. Gracie Smith, Capt. Cobb, who had taken 1000 mackerel the night previous in nets.