

Back Street from a hill near Galeforce Farm (center, foreground). Standpipe and Monument in background. Town Hall and Universalist Church steeples can be seen to right of the Monument.

-- September 1945 --

The house at the left on the hill is the George Elmer Brown studio (formerly Lockwood's home), an artist.

-- August 1940 --

Facing East; West Vine Street, right, the last street leading off Bradford Street to Commercial Street. The Pilgrim Memorial Monument in the background. The next street by long shed is Nickerson Street.

A Pastoral Scene. Watering The Cows at Bennett's Pond, PROVINCETOWN, Mass.

