AND TUESDAY Norman Cook opened the new wing of Adams Pharmacy that Morris Snow and Wes Felton have been busy building. It adds an area of about 250 square feet and this will be welcome as the place certainly is crowded right after school when the High School kids congregate there. Norman says he is not going to have a cocktail housewarming. In back of the new addition is a private desk space for the boss.

Norman Cook, and Althea's 3rd Cousin, now owner of Adam's Pharmacy. (His mother was Jennie Adams)

"AGE BREEDS ACHES"

Modern research has perfected many new medicines to keep aches and pains away.

Geriatric vitamins add increased energy. Certain drugs help ward off heart troubles and hardening arteries. Losing excess weight lessens strain. But, only a physician knows how to prescribe the proper medication. Consult yours for regular check-ups. He can help you keep aches away.

YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a medicine. Pick up your prescription if shopping nearby, or we will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people entrust us with their prescriptions. May we compound yours?

Charles W. Burch

Word was received here last night of the death yesterday in St. Petersburg, Florida, of Charles W. Burch, 66, a prominent baker in Provincetown for many years. His son, Howard, was informed last night of the death of his father and flew to Wilmington, Delaware, where he joined his brother, Francis, for the flight to St.

Petersburg. During recent years Mr. Burch has been spending his winters in Florida and recently bought a home in St. Petersburg. For some years he operated a bakery in Rockville, Conn., but most of his active years in the business were spent in Provincetown with a shop and old fashioned oven located in his building at the corner of Commercial and Gosnold Streets.
