

Same scene as picture on preceding page, about 10 years later ----- 1920
Board of Trade, left with flag. The next large building is the Pilgrim Theater (see preceding page), which was torn down in 1938. Next is the Dining Room beside the Campbell Livery Stable. Town Hall and Pilgrim Congregational Church. The J.E. Atkins Furniture Warehouse, and Post Office, opposite Gosnold Street. Provincetown Bakery, on right. Colonial Cold Storage Wharf and Matheson's (Steamboat) right.
This print is one from which postcards were made.
(John R. Smith)