

THURSDAY, JANUARY 2, 1958

Starts 41st Year As News Dealer

Arthur C. Patrick of Patrick's Newsstand yesterday observed his 40th anniversary in the newsstand business.

Patrick's store is building with the green sign.
A 1957 card

AUGUST 11, 1966

Arthur C. Patrick Dies Owner Of Newsstand

Services will be held tomorrow morning (Friday), at 9 a.m., at the Church of St. Peter the Apostle for Arthur C. Patrick, 69, of 306 Commercial Street, who died at the Cape Cod Hospital on Tuesday, August 9. Interment will be in St. Peter's Cemetery.

Mr. Patrick was born in Provincetown, the son of the late Joseph and Matilda (Tarvis) Patrick and lived here all his life. He was educated in local schools and attended Brown University in Providence, Rhode Island. He served in World War I, from 1918 to 1919 being discharged with rank of corporal.

Returning to Provincetown he worked for his father in the news-store and upon his father's death became owner of Patricks Newsstand, operating the business until his death.

Mr. Patrick was a communicant of the Church of St. Peter the Apostle; a charter member of Walter Welsh Council, 4th Degree Knights Bishop Council 247; Past Chancellor of Knights of Columbus; Chancellor from 1923 to 1932; a member of Morris-Light Post 71, American Legion. He was also a member of the Retail Division Gift and Decorative Accessories, Association of America, Inc.

Survivors are his wife Beatrice Suker Patrick, two daughters, Mrs. Carolyn E. Chase of Toronto, Canada and Mrs. Eleanor P. Rebak of Tacoma Park, Maryland and a brother Cyril of Provincetown as well as six grandchildren, a niece and two nephews.

Same scene as above - 1960