

138

Buildings Reflected in Provincetown

CAPE COD STANDARD-TIMES, TUESDAY, MAY 19, 1959

Harbor Are Unusual Cape-tip Sight

Provincetown's harbor presents a face which is seldom seen in that town at any time of the year. The flat calm water provides a mirror-like surface to reflect the Old World atmosphere of the waterfront buildings. Dominating the scene is the Chrysler Art Museum, formerly the Provincetown Methodist Church.

(Cape Cod Standard-Times Photo)