

"Fish Wharf" Provincetown, Mass.

-- About 1890 --

The Edy Small wharf on the left. The George O. Knowles Wharf, right, opposite Pearl Street

January 7, 1874
 We learn that David Conwell, Esq., one of the most enterprising and prominent of the Provincetown Fish Dealers, has shipped about three thousand quintals of Fish from Provincetown by rail during the past season. Numerous other parties have probably done as well. Let us hear from them.
